b-

The speaker is Creon /Jocasta's brother. The addressee is Oedipus. Creon is telling Oedipus that he can't permit him to keep his children. He is telling Oedipus that Oedipus is no longer capable of taking care of his own children as the truth has revealed finally. The main idea of this speech is to show Creon's cautiousness versus Oedipus' openness. Creon says only things that he is sure of, and he makes decisions carefully. Oedipus has no power any more.
